++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunshine and showers at first. Drier later. Breezy and cold.

Today:
A mixture of sunny spells and showers during the morning, mainly affecting coastal districts, but some may penetrate inland, turning wintry on hills. The showers will ease during the afternoon, with most places becoming largely dry. Breezy and feeling cold. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tonight:
Largely dry with clear spells overnight. Perhaps the odd shower feeding into some coastal areas. A cold and frosty night inland, with risk of ice and freezing fog patches. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Saturday:
After a cold and frosty start, it will be largely dry with sunny spells. Chance of some coastal showers, these may penetrate further inland, where wintry on hills. Staying cold. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Staying cold, with a mixture of rain, sleet and snow throughout the period. Snow mainly confined to hills, but not exclusively. Becoming drier by Tuesday. Frost and ice risk throughout.
